PARISH FETE

This year's fete will take place after the school holidays. To start planning for it, we would like to form a small group to develop and organise the big day. Please speak to Fr Paul if interested. Perhaps you have some ideas or time to give to the parish. This is a great way to help out. Many people are involved on the day, but some work behind the scenes and preparation is required.

PARISH FUNDRAISING

If you have some experience with grant applications or fundraising and are able to give some of your time for a short period, please speak to Fr Paul.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

This week's collection is for the parish building fund. Apologies for the confusion last week. The company who print the envelopes printed both the building fund and the sick and retired priests collection for last week. If you have not given to the building fund, please do so this weekend. Thank you for your generosity
