SPECIAL COLLECTION

The special collection today is for the parish Legacy fund. When the parish decided to have a second collection when there is no set one, we spoke about doing so to leave a legacy for the coming generations, just as we are now using the funds you and your families had donated to the parish over the past decades. Therefore, I thought we would now call the extra parish fund the Legacy Fund.

MY LORD and MY GOD

FEEL FREE TO TAKE THIS BULLETIN HOME WITH YOU

Last week the parish received a certificate about an Early Day Motion at Westminster sponsored by Kirsten Oswald MP who had been unable to attend the Dedication of the Church in December. This was before the election was announced. "These are motions submitted for debate in the House of Commons for which no day has been fixed. As there is no specific time allocated to EDMs very few are debated."

175 YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF ST JOHN'S CHURCH, BARRHEAD

That this House congratulates the congregations, past and present, of St John the Evangelist Parish Church, Barrhead, on the 175th anniversary of their Church; notes that the Right Reverend John Keenan, Bishop of Paisley, dedicated the Church on the occasion of its 175th year; recognises that the congregation has worshipped in the current church building in Aurs Road since 1961, having been in temporary accommodation in the Parish Hall and Tower Rais, following the said destruction of the old gothic St John's Church in an electrical-related fire in 1941; values the immense contribution to local and international communities made by the work of those associated with the Church over the 175 years it has been in Barrhead, including supporting local young people and families in need, schools in Malawi and other countries and helping the work of Mary's Meals; and wishes all associated with St John's Parish Church well for the next 175 years and beyond.
